FRIDAY LETTER

12th October 2018

Glossop Jog...

Parents' Evenings...

Sport Fixtures ...

Dear Parents/Carers,

Thank you to a dedicated few who turned out for the Glossop Jog last Sunday. It was the first one I haven't been able to attend in 10 years so I missed out on the fun. Well done runners! Let's try next year for a big turnout.

Parents' Evening 23rd October 3.30-5.30 and Wednesday 24th October 4.00-6.00pm
The time has come to review your child's new start to the year. Appointment letters will be sent out on Monday. We will need to be really strict about keeping to ten minutes per appointment due to most classes being 30 pupils but this should mean that you should not be kept waiting for yours.

Cross-Country Tournament

Saint Mary's is hosting the Inter-School Cross-Country Tournament at 4pm on Monday 15th October. Let's hope our team do well.

Boys Football League at Glossopdale School, Hadfield

The boys team will be playing both this Friday and next at 4pm. I am hoping they will be successful in the inter-school league – they show great promise and talent!

Year 1 Autumn Walk

Year 1 chose wisely to go on a lovely Autumn walk yesterday in the warm sunshine. They collected conkers, golden leaves and seeds and enjoyed celebrating God's wonderful world!

Reception Class.

The class are creating a hairdressers' salon. If you have any rollers, brushes or unwanted "Girls' World", etc. that the children can use as part of their role play, please drop them into the Office or Reception Class.

Have a good weekend
